Pony Too Much for Snapper Garrison

SNAPPER GARRISON, the racing idol of a generation ago and whose riding caused the coining of the term "Garrison finish," showed his feet of clay yesterday when he paraded at the Belmont Park races with his arm in a sling. The Snapper is now trainer for the Marrow Stable, and a couple of days ago was riding his pony while the horses in his charge were exercising at Belmont Park. The docile pony got the better of the great rider and he was thrown and his arm broken.

Iron Man Pitching as in Olden Days

No more encouraging feature of Brooklyn's plucky fight for a position of distinction in the National League race could be imagined than the apparent return to his old time form of Jack Coombs. Hit With Bases Full Gives Colby Victory Over Maine.

WATERVILLE, Me., May 22.—A three bagger by Allen of Colby, with two out and three on bases to-day, followed by a single by James, which scored Allen, turned what had looked like a defeat into g 5 to 3 victory over Maine. James, on the mound for Colby, was erratic in the first inning, giving two hits and two passes, which with a costly throw by Deasy gave the visitors three runs. Colby steadied down and retired Maine in order in the second. Maine got three men on the sacks in the third, with one out, but Hackett was squeezed out at the plate and Reardon flied to Laffeur. #### NATIONAL LEAGUE.

THE SUN, SUNDAY, MAY 23, 1915.

Heavy rains kept six National League clubs idle yesterday and incidentally inflicted a financial loss on those con cerned, for Saturdays come only so often. In New York, Brooklyn and Philadelphia it rained torrents, but the Cubs and Braves were more fortunate. The Cubs were doubly fortunate in that they beat the Braves and went up to first place, a position held by the Phillies since the race began.

There is another phase of this disappointing weather that should not be overlooked. One of the great advantages of playing at home early in the season lies in morning practice, a convenience which a visiting club cannot enjoy. Wherefore the Giants, Dodgers, Phillies and Braves just now are in much the same boat as the Cubs, Pirates, Cardinals and Reds. They face almost as great chance of getting rusty almost as great chance of getting rusty through lack of exercise.
